TORONTO'S VIRTUAL INTRODUCTION AND RECRUITMENT EVENT

As the black clouds of COVID begin to recede, ReDefine has a welcome opportunity to make hay while the sun shines. Last month, our team met with Torontonians interested in exploring career opportunities for our new studio at Toronto. The event gave an unique opportunity to speak with industry professionals and talent managers from the studio. The event started with a virtual information session, with details on working culture, the recruitment process and an overview of our various departments, followed by an interactive Q&A session with breakout rooms. It hugely benefited all the participants as it gave them direct opportunity to speak to the professionals from the studio. ReDefine is hiring artists, supervisors and production staff across multiple departments, including Compositing, FX TDs, and Assets.

TESTIMONIALS

The team at ReDefine were a crucial part of bringing Muppets Haunted Mansion to life. Their quick turnarounds, collaborations with other vendors, and ability to handle a large number of VFX shots under a tight deadline were integral to many of the key visual effects shots and sequences in the special. We deeply appreciate the entire ReDefine team for their tireless hard work and dedication to the project.

Executive Producer, Muppets Haunted Mansion

TRIVIA

Sweet Girl: A yellow taxi cab has a cameo in one shot, and then in the final scenes, Rachel takes a yellow taxi cab to the airport. This car was made up specifically for the movie - as Pittsburgh doesn't have a yellow taxi cab company (the local yellow cab became zTrip in 2016).

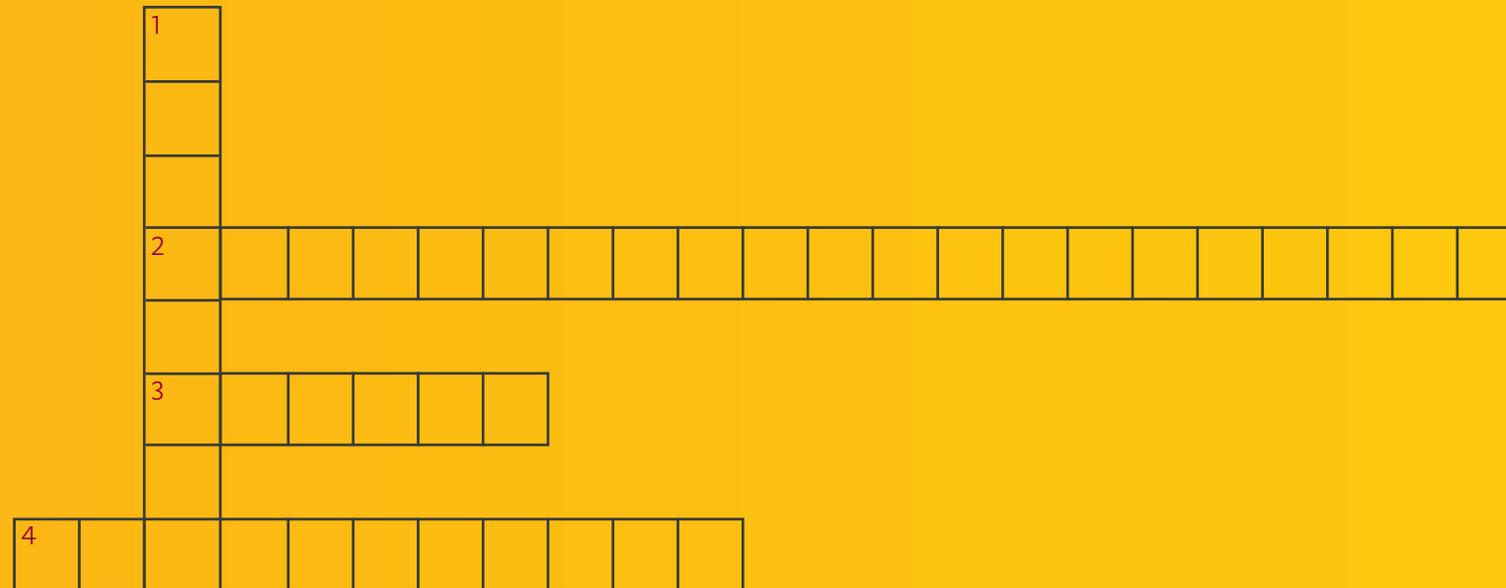

The Muppets - Haunted Mansion: The address of the Mansion is 924. This is a tribute to the birth date of Jim Henson, who was born on 24th September, 1936.

Cry Macho: There had been multiple attempts to get this project made prior to Clint Eastwood's adaptation, as the project remained on the shelf for about 30 years.
